Thomas

Is it Perkins & Will's intention to update the bid sheets and or do we manually insert the new specification sheets (once you have them) into the overall specification card package?

- Systems workstation WK.01-C
- the two alternates yet for the closed file
- and closed bookcase at offices

Then the bidders bid on everything including alternates or options, then the options are sorted-out selections made by FERC after final pricing,

Best pricing and value would then be chosen by TALU
